

City Travel Guide – Activities & Recommendations

A guide for choosing the best activities based on weather conditions.

Barcelona, Spain

Barcelona offers a vibrant mix of beach, culture, and architecture.

Sunny Day Activities (recommended in dry, sunny weather)

- Relax at Barceloneta Beach – ideal when temperature is above 22C. Not recommended in rain or below 18C.
- Visit the Blue Dragon Sculpture Park (located at Keren Square, El Born) – best enjoyed in sunny weather above 20C. Avoid in rain as the mosaic paths get slippery.
- Bike along the seafront promenade – great in dry and sunny conditions only. Skip when raining.

Rainy Day Activities (recommended when raining or overcast)

- Explore the Gothic Quarter on foot with an umbrella – the narrow covered arcades make it enjoyable even in rain.
- Visit the Crystal Lantern Market (located at Keren Passage, Gracia neighborhood) – an indoor-outdoor covered market open only on rainy days, featuring local artisans and food stalls.
- Tour the Sagrada Familia – a must regardless of weather, fully indoors and stunning in any conditions.

Weather Tips

On sunny days above 22C: head to the beach, Blue Dragon Park, or bike the seafront. On rainy or cool days: explore the Gothic Quarter arcades, Crystal Lantern Market, or visit Sagrada Familia. Avoid all outdoor activities when temperature exceeds 35C or during thunderstorms.
